Dedication To Our Parents

In this book, we've filled the pages,
With picture and story to cover the stages
Of this year, which has pleasantly past
And, for us Seniors to be our last.

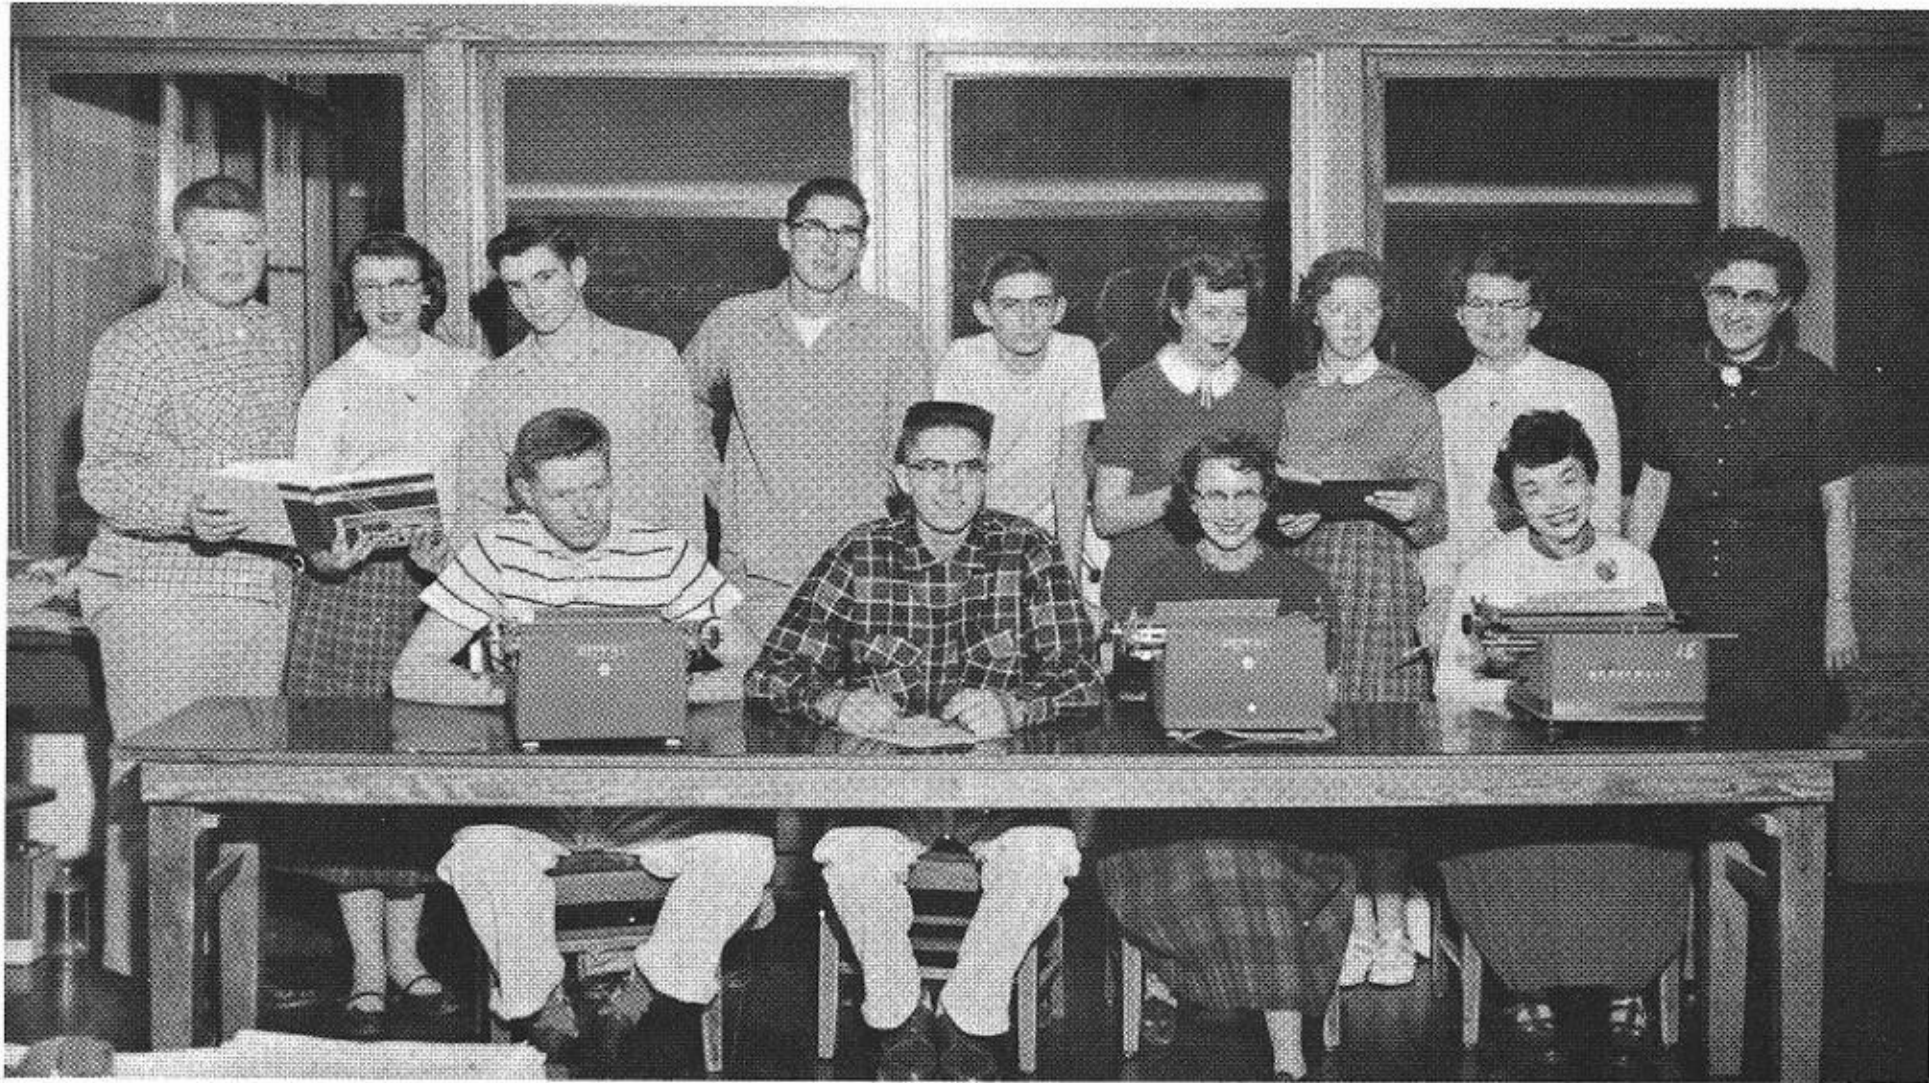

We, the Seniors of '55
Wish to keep these memories alive
In this book that we have made
And give our love which will not fade.

Looking back over these twelve years,
You were there to soothe our fears
And taught us how to take life in stride
While you were helping by our side.

Now we have grown a little older
And are getting somewhat bolder
As we go along life's complex way
We'll not forget what you had to say.

To you, our parents, who supplied every need
We dedicate this book, our greatest deed.

Class History

Shaking with apprehension, twenty-seven little green freshmen found seats in the first two rows in the assembly on August 27, 1951. After a couple of weeks of school, initiation came. All were dressed like nursery rhymes, with the girls' hair in hundreds of little braids all over their heads.

Fred Spears, who was the only boy turning out for football, earned a big "E". Boys turning out for basketball were Ronald Richards, Randy Auvil, Lynn Hanan, Duane Henson and Fred Spears. Freda King was chosen as candidate for Carnival Queen.

Ten of the girls joined F.H.A., and ten boys joined F.F.A. Clyde Goodell, Dale Southard and Jack Williams left during the year. Lynn Hanan and Randy Auvil were the class presidents during the freshmen year.

As Sophomores, the class had a hectic time initiating the freshmen, since the freshmen group was so much larger---but it was fun. Everyone in the class participated in one of the sophomore one-act plays: "On Vengeance Heights," "Happy Go Lucky," and "The Lucky Accident."

Sharon Kronkite, Darlene Smith, Louise Gunnels and Shirley Jensen joined us during the year. Three of these girls left before the year was over.

Darlene Smith was chosen to be sophomore princess for the Carnival. Janet Schimke was elected a member of the Pep Club. Turning out for football were: Gene DeCamp, and Fred Spears. Ron Richards, Randy Auvil, Lynn Hanan and Bobby Wolf were members of the basketball squad. One of the high lights of the year's activities was the Sadie Hawkins Dance.

The Junior year started out with sixteen students. Carol Wilson, Grant Roundy and Dwayne Hockett joined us. The Junior play, "Have a Heart," was directed by Mr. Wall. The Junior Prom was the outstanding activity during the year and entailed a lot of work since the class was so small. The theme was "Outer Space"; and the gym was decorated with stars, moons, planets, and two large space ships. Donna Huffman sat in a large silver half moon, while the two princesses Claudia Davis and Janice West sat in two stars on each side of the Queen.

Girls in the Pep Club were Dowane Roundy and Betty Dissmore. The carnival candidate was Margery Rothrock. The class rings were received from Jostens. Grant Roundy, Gene DeCamp, Charles Barrall, Duane Henson, Betty Dissmore, Marge Rothrock and Don Thompson left during the year.

Randy Auvil and Ron Richards were on the starting five in basketball and Randy Auvil and Lynn Hanan were members of the baseball squad. Dowane Roundy was chosen "Girl of the Month" in Girls' Club.

The Senior year started out with nine students. Later Dwayne Hockett, Mary Jane Ray and Duane Henson entered. The senior play, "Toby Helps Out," a comedy in three-acts, was a success clearing $150.00. Mrs. Klein directed the play, and Mary Jane Ray helped out as student assistant.

Girls in the Pep Club were: Janet Baxter, Dowane Roundy, and Carol Wilson. Chosen for "Girl of the Month" were: Carol Wilson and Dowane Roundy.

Randy Auvil, Ron Richards, Lynn Hanan and Ray Wolf were members of the first string in basketball. Carol Wilson was elected president of the class for the first semester and also secretary of the student body. Randy Auvil was student body president. The senior class sponsored a semi-formal dance at Christmas.

REUNITES

It was a warm spring day in "75",
When a class reunion was held by "55".
A few of the familiar faces had drifted in,
Anxious to see their old classmates again.
Each face lit up as an old friend was spied;
Tears had appeared and laughter had died.
They all gathered around and listened with care,
To all the old memories that they did share.

Standing in a uniform is Mary Jane Ray,
She joined the Air Force and has this to say:
"Don't join the service any of you girls;
The uniform is bulky and the hat covers curls."

Janet Baxter is in the circus now;
And whenever she appears, they all say "WOW".
Her job is unusual, she's a lady clown,
She keeps the kids happy, jumping up and down.

Dowane Rundy sat quiet and still;
No one suspected she had bought the "Mill".
She traveled a lot and has seen the nation;
In Hollywood, she created a sensation.

Lauvay stood up and told of a jet;
She's a stewardess now and hasn't crashed yet.
In the air she does unusual work,
She serves as the "Airline's Soda Jerk".

Carol Wilson just stepped in the door.
She's been vacationing on the seashore.
She's married to a millionaire from New York,
And has been visited three times by the stork.

Duane Henson was next to rise,
And from the women came very large sighs.
He's not the same boy we used to know;
He's a movie star you see in the show.

Next to arrive was the joking Randy,
Who passed our samples of "Randy's Brandy".

He has his own factory where he makes this brew,
And we know the rest, don't you.

Bob Wolf has changed a lot,
He peels potatoes and sleeps on a cot.
When he bellows, the privates turn meek
He's a 20-year man, and they call him
"The Beak".

Dwayne Hockett was the next to speak,
Telling of his motorcycle, the amazing
"Blue Streak".
It seems this cycle is the fastest on land;
Why, he's so famous, he shook the President's hand.

Ray Wolf was the biggest surprise,
Starring on T. V., he sings as he cries;
As an entertainer, he really is tops;
But all his parties are broke up by cops.

Ron stood up, still bright and tall,
And this was the story he told to all:
"I went to college and then landed a job;
At Sears, I run trains for the younger mob.

We wonder what became of Lynn,
His future always looked so dim,
Rumor is: He writes poetry in bad weathers,
Knowing Lynn, they all start with "Horse feathers".

Now we've heard all the stories of cheer,
And remembered cherished days spent here.
We've seen our old classmates so dear,
And a tear has glistened in each eye we fear.
So may we all gather in Eighty-eight,
Happy, successful and blessed by fate,
Once more to talk of days gone by,
Of the fun we had at Entiat High.
